DIGNITARIES TO SPEAK AT OSIG'S 10TH ANNIVERSARY EVENT

WHAT: The Office of the State Inspector General is hosting a speaker's event and open house to mark its 10th anniversary since the General Assembly established the agency on July 1, 2012. During the General Assembly's 2011 session, two bills – SB 1477 and HB 2076 – resulted in legislation that created OSIG to investigate fraud, waste, abuse or corruption in executive branch state agencies.

WHEN: June 29, 2022 at 10 a.m.

WHERE: James Monroe Building Plaza located at 101 N. 14th St., in Richmond.

SPEAKERS: The list of dignitaries speaking at the event include:

- Michael C. Westfall, State Inspector General
- The Honorable Kay James, Secretary of the Commonwealth
- The Honorable Amiee Rogstad Guidera, Secretary of Education
- The Honorable Stephen E. Cummings, Secretary of Finance
- The Honorable John Littell, Secretary of Health and Human Resources
- The Honorable George "Bryan" Slater, Secretary of Labor
- The Honorable Secretary Robert "Bob" Mosier, Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security
- The Honorable W. Sheppard Miller III, Secretary of Transportation
- The Honorable Jason Miyares, Attorney General
- The Honorable Glenn Youngkin, Governor of Virginia, via video greeting

Established in 2012, the Virginia Office of the State Inspector General manages the State Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline; conducts investigations and performance audits of state agencies; provides training and standards for the commonwealth's internal audit programs; and conducts inspections and reviews of Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services-run facilities and programs.
